

CITY ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Primm, of 68 Donelson street, entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of their sister, Mrs. Lee Pate. The table was laden with the delicacies of the season. Those present were Mrs. Ed Nesby and Mr. James Madison Primm. The guests retired to the sitting room where they were highly entertained by the following young ladies: Miss Mary E. Nesby, Maggie A. Beard and Kate G. Berry.

Miss Willie L. Allen, who recently left for Chicago, Ill., on account of the illness of her aunt, is expected home in two weeks.

Mrs. Batts lost her sister, Mrs. Rosa Burton, last Sunday.

Mrs. Jennie Nelson, who has been very sick, is reported better at this writing.

The many friends of Mr. Edward Kelly, who reside in North Nashville, will regret to learn of the serious injury which he received recently to one of his eyes. His eye is so afflicted as to cause the entire loss of the sight. Mr. Henry Osborne, of Gallatin, was a recent visitor to the city.

Mrs. Eliza Battle of South Nashville, who has spent quite a time with her daughter, Mrs. Lewis Bryant, of Sixth avenue, North, has returned home.

The marriage of Miss Izora Gray, of Crawfordsville, Ind., formerly of this city, took place last Monday evening. Miss Lula Outen, also of Indiana, was the maid of honor.

Miss Wilhedean Jones, of Third avenue, North, has been somewhat indisposed.

Mrs. Scott, of Sixth avenue, North, is very much indisposed.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Buchanan, formerly of East Main street, have moved to Sixth avenue, North.

Mrs. Ed Nesby, of Hamilton avenue, entertained a limited number of her friends at dinner Monday. A tempting two-course menu was served. Those present were Mrs. Lizzie G. Ridley, Mrs. Lucy Brown, Mrs. Anna Montague, Mrs. Lee Pate and Mrs. Alex Primm.

Miss Pearl Brooks spent Sunday with Miss Gertrude Lewis, of First avenue, North.

Mrs. Dora Moore, of St. Louis, Mo., is visiting Mrs. Blanch Gieves, of 254 Fillmore street.

Miss Georgia Shelby, of Fourth avenue, South, has returned to her work at the Baptist Publishing House.

Miss Mary A. Dunson, of Ninth avenue, North, is suffering from the effects of a cold.

Mr. Wymon Brady, representative of the Nashville Globe, spent Sunday in Murfreesboro, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Brady.

There is to be given at Pleasant Green Church, Monday evening, Jan. 28, one of the most promising concerts ever worked up by the choir.

Mrs. Ann Collins, of Cedar street, who some months ago was stricken with paralysis, is still very sick.

Miss John D. Thompson, of Nashville, Tenn., has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. M. L. Brown, of Pratt City. She was entertained Friday by a number of the Birmingham citizens. Among the number was Mr. Lucius Foreman Jeweler, Miss A. I. Purcell and Miss J. Bradford. Miss Thompson is very much pleased with her stay in the city.—The Birmingham Reporter.

Miss Carrie B. Page, who has been the guest of her brother, Walter Page, of Murfreesboro, has returned to the city. She will leave Thursday for Franklin.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shannon entertained at their residence, 1285 Third avenue, South, Monday night, Jan. 13. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. Scates, Dr. D. B. Miller, Miss Mary Page, Dr. Kershaw, Miss Hattie Cantrell, Mrs. Narcissa Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Prim and Mrs. Lawrence. Music was furnished by Mr. Clark and Mr. Shelton. At ten they retired to the dining room and were served salmon salad, cheese, crackers, fruits cream, cake and wine.

Mrs. Jesse Smith, formerly of Nashville, but now of Louisville, Ky., is in the city on business matters. She will probably remain about two or three weeks.

Mr. T. W. Maddux, of Normal, Ala., is in the city the guest of his brother, Mr. J. C. Maddux of Kayne avenue.

Rev. Amos Parr, pastor of Kayne avenue Baptist Church, preached a soul-stirring sermon at 11 o'clock last Sabbath.

Mr. Unphrus Maddux, of Ivory street, is seriously ill.

Rev. J. H. Lawrence, of Chicago, Ill., is in the city visiting his brother, Rev. E. M. Lawrence, of 1027 Thirteenth avenue, South.

The Willing Workers Club, of Kayne Avenue Baptist Church, will meet Monday night at the residence of Mrs. Lucy Amos, of Overton street.

Mr. E. G. Lawrence, of Ament street, who has been slightly disabled, is able to be up again.

Mrs. Annie Dillihanty, of Edgemoor avenue, who has been sick for some time, died last Saturday evening at six o'clock. The funeral services were held at Kayne Avenue Baptist Church, Revs. J. C. Harding, Green Thompson, J. L. Harding and the pastor officiating.

Mr. W. A. Anderson entertained in honor of Mr. T. W. Maddux last Wednesday night. Those present: T. W. Maddux, A. A. Underwood, P. Perkins, David Nelson, A. L. Anderson, J. W. DeWees, — Britt and — Williams.

Mr. T. G. Ewing spent last week in Lebanon, Tenn., attending to some very important cases in which he was attorney for the defendant. It is said he won his three cases with all ease. Rev. W. D. Chappelle is back from the Bishops' Council.

Rev. C. H. Clark will occupy his pulpit on Sunday at Mt. Olive Baptist Church after an absence of several weeks, in Savannah, Ga.

Preparations are being made for good spring revivals in all the churches of Nashville.

Rev. Wm. Beckham left Thursday for Bowling Green, Ky., where he spoke Thursday and Friday night.

Mrs. Prince Ella V. Williams-Abrams, of Houston, Tex., is contemplating a visit to Nashville in the near future while en route East.

Little Marie McKinney Singleton, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Singleton, has been very sick with rheumatism for several days, but is improving slowly.

Rev. P. H. Kennedy, Superintendent of Missions for the state of Kentucky and General Missionary of the Baptists of the proud Blue Grass State, spent two days in Nashville this week, looking after some new work along Mission fields for his state.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Napier left Wednesday evening for St. Louis, Mo., where they will remain for two weeks visiting relatives. Mr. Napier will spend a while with his mother and sister, while Mrs. Napier will remain over a week longer as the guest of her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Langston.

Hundreds of children attending the grammar schools as well as the high school, were promoted last week.

The Fifth Avenue Baptist Church is showing signs of much improvement under the pastorate of Rev. J. W. Gardner, who has only recently taken charge, and who is being nobly assisted by H. M. Barnes, R. L. Woods and S. L. Owens, the three trustees, who are giving yeoman service.

Mr. Elmo Bond and Mr. Preston Scates, of Murfreesboro, were in Nashville Tuesday, Jan. 22. Miss Molly Sheppard, of South Nashville, underwent an operation Tuesday, Jan. 22, and is resting nicely.

Mrs. Vera Forles Scott, of East Nashville, who has been spending the last three months in Bowling Green, Ky., left Friday night for Chicago to spend a few months with her aunt of that city.

Miss Frances Walker left Wednesday morning for Courtland, where she will teach music at the Baptist Seminary.

Look out for the Murfreesboro football team of 1907. They will be in the field with a No. 1 good team. They expect to play one or two of the Nashville prep. teams.

Mr. Joseph W. DeWees spent a few days in Hopkinsville, Ky., this week.

Damon Lodge, K. of P., installed his new officers Wednesday night. Dr. J. C. Crawford, G. C., officiated. The following are the officers: C. C., J. W. Blaine; V. C., F. J. Ewing; M. of W., Wm. Boger; M. of P., S. J. Chandler; M. of Ex., J. B. Batte; M. at A., R. E. Gee; I. G., Willis Jones; O. G., Ernest McGuire; Trustees: J. O. Battle, A. W. Fite, J. Thos. Turner.

The delegates from the various Pythian lodges held a meeting in the reception room of the Pythian Temple last Sunday afternoon and organized by electing A. W. Fite, chairman, and A. A. Bennett, Secretary. All the lodges excepting Harmony were represented.

Mr. Clinton and Miss Mary Louise Buchanan, of 81 Fairfield avenue, and a few of their friends gave their cousins, Miss Mary Myrtle and Mr. George Drew, a surprise party last Monday night. Music and games were enjoyed and fruit and cakes were served.

Messrs. James Cannon and Will Gipson left the city this week for Weekly, I. T.

Rev. W. S. Ellington, the popular pastor of the First Baptist Church, Spruce street, is suffering from the effects of a heavy cold.

Mrs. Lucy Rhodes is now teaching millinery on Thirteenth avenue, South. Any one wishing to take lessons will call to see her.

Miss Malissa N. Wims is suffering with her throat.

A limited number gathered at the home of Prof. and Mrs. J. B. Batte last Tuesday evening and spent a pleasant time. Those present were Mesdames Mary Cardiman, Laura Reed, Mary Saunders, Misses L. J. Halfacre and J. V. Dixon, Messrs. Randal Hardiman, Taylor Saunders, Edd Buford and Mack Buford.

Mr. Geo. Gibson is slightly indisposed.

Dr. H. T. Johnson, who visited the Bishops' Council, passed through the city Monday en route to the Florida Conference.

Bishop Evans Tyree will speak at St. Paul Sunday morning.

Dr. E. S. Randals, of Clarksville, Tenn., was in the city last week.

The lecture and entertainment at St. John A. M. E. Church last Wednesday night was quite a success.

Mrs. Fannie Dillihunt departed this life last Saturday night. She was a faithful Christian woman and well respected by all who knew her. The funeral services were held at Kayne avenue Baptist Church with Rev. A. Parr officiating.

Mr. August Caruthers, of 906 McCampbell street, is sick.

Miss Bettie Ashley, who has not enjoyed the best of health this winter, is rapidly improving.

Mr. Oliver H. Brown, of McCampbell street, is quite indisposed this week.

Little Dayton Arabele Hart, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hart, of 1226 Jefferson street, is quite sick with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cole, of Thomson street, are in smiles. Little H. C. Cole, Jr., smiles also when he is not crying.

Miss Fannie Mai Rhodes and Mr. Ernest Foster were married at Clark Memorial Church at the close of the morning service last Sunday.

Mr. S. P. Toney, of 1700 Patterson street, who has been confined to the house by sickness for some time, is able to be out.

Mr. William Broyles, who has been at Mercy Hospital for several months, is rapidly improving.

Little Merrill Work, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Work, attended church Sunday morning for the second time of his life.

Miss Sallie Ezell, of East Nashville, is suffering with neuralgia.

Miss Bessie Matlock, of Thirteenth avenue, North, who has been sick for about two weeks, is able to attend to her duties at the Baptist Publishing House.

Mrs. Jefferson Martin is sick at her home on Hynes street.

Miss Sallie McBride, of East Nashville, is still seriously sick.

FRANKLIN NOTES.

Mr. Samuel Williams, of East Franklin, is on the sick list.

Miss Sallie B. Williams is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Felix Southall, 811 South street, Nashville.

Mr. Tom Doyle was in Nashville last week.

Miss Sandy Mayberry, of West Franklin, was in town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Nevils, of West Franklin, were in Nashville this week. Rev. E. M. Seymour was in Nashville Sunday.

Mr. Thomas A. Williams, of House avenue, was in Nashville Wednesday. Mr. Fred D. Williams was in Mount Pleasant, Tenn., Sunday.

Dr. Miller, of Fogg street, Nashville, was out last week with Dr. A. G. McKendry.

Mrs. Mary A. Southall and little son, Frederick O. Southall, of 811 South street, Nashville, were the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. C. Williams, Sunday.

Mrs. Hazel Doyle, of South Franklin, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Britt, 140 Thomas street, Nashville, Saturday.

SURPRISE PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. John Barnes, of 1411 Pearl street, gave a surprise birthday party Thursday, Jan. 24, in honor of their sister, Miss Vannoy Cleveland Webster. For the occasion the house was beautifully decorated with flowers. The guests began to arrive at an early hour and throughout the evening the spirit of the occasion was entered into heartily. Music and games were the principal features of the evening, the music having been furnished by Messrs. Wm. Brook, D. J. Jenkins and Lou Brook. At a late hour the following menu was served:

Green peas.	Sandwiches.
Cream cheese.	Crackers.
Chocolate.	Cake.
Ice cream.	Mints.

Those present were Misses Velma Mosely, Clara Frierson, Bessie Garrett, Fannie Watkins, Lena Barnes, Marie Stockell, Brucie Mai Ewing, Virginia Whittaker, Addie Fite, Mary Whittaker, Myrtle Kirkpatrick, Emma James, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Voorhees, Messrs. Samuel Houston, Joseph Webster, Richard Perkins, James Hunter, Ed Allen, Hugh Cox, Herbert McBride, Frank Patterson, Arthur Bell, Milton Darden, Charles Walker, W. A. House, A. Brock, Geo. Reid, A. Fite, H. Fite, Jesse Fite, Thos. Webster, Wm. Brooks, John T. Baras, S. L. Marshall, Lee Roy Barnes and Wm. Stockell.

MARK PARTY.

A mask party was given by a club of young ladies of East Nashville at the residence of Mr. Cheers, last Tuesday night. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Hart, A. Scates, J. O. Mathew, C. E. Garrett, Miss Willa Cohn, Miss B. McCol, J. Rogan, W. Douglas, Miss Sallie Cheers, Miss Jessie John-

Preston Taylor.

Telephone 896.

TAYLOR &amp; CO.

Funeral Directors and Embalmers.

CARRIAGES FOR HIRE.

449 Fifth Avenue, North,

Nashville, - - Tenn.

son, Mr. Idela Mayberry, Miss Sou. Cheers, Miss M. B. Rogan, Mr. John Mayberry, Mr. Geo. Darden and Mr. John W. McColum.

Geo. O. Boyd, Jr.

J. Frank Battle.

BOYD &amp; BATTLE,

First-Class Horses and Buggies To Let

Our Baggage Wagon will call for and deliver your parcels.

Short Wood and Coal Orders promptly delivered.

Horses Bought and Sold.

PHONE MAIN 4460—Y.

900 Joe Johnston Ave.,

Nashville, Tenn.

7-20-'06 tf

BUY YOUR SHOES

OF

BOB ROBERTSON.

PHONE 3223-L.

RESIDENCE: 618 WEBSTER STREET.

WITH

Cline &amp; Gordon.

410 Union Street. Phone 1235.

The Best Variety and the Most Reliable Shoes Made.

BUY YOUR

Clothing, Hats, Etc.,

OF

BOB ROBERTSON,

PHONE 3223-L.

RESIDENCE: 618 WEBSTER STREET.

WITH

Varley &amp; Bauman.

325 Union St. Phone 560.

The Best Variety and the Most Reliable Place in the City.

BUY YOUR

Dry Goods, Notions, Cloaks, Etc.,

OF

Bob Robertson.

PHONE 3223-L.

RESIDENCE: 618 WEBSTER STREET.

WITH

The Castner-Knott Dry Goods Co.

209 Fifth Ave., N. Phone 620.

The Largest and Best Stock to Select from in the City.

To the Madam of the House:

ANY TIME YOU

Need Servants

Call Main 2160

Hunt's Employment Office.

Globe reporter did not know how old Mrs. Mattie Mills was, but deemed it best to forget. Seated at the table where Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Mills, Mrs. Carrie Bally, of Chicago; Mr. and D. A. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mills, The table was laden with delicious viands, and all present enjoyed this elegant dinner to the highest.

Turkey with giblet dressing and cranberry sauce, green peas and chicken salad; spaghetti, candied potatoes, celery, pickles, etc., and banana cream and fruit, cake, black coffee and crackers was served.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Richardson, of 1207 Phillips street, gave a birthday party in honor of their son, Henry D. A two-course menu was served; the colors used being pink and white. The hours were from 3 until 6 p. m. The guests were Misses Enone Wainwright, Vassa Simmons, Lena Waters, Mary Beasley, Julia Pope, Lucile Boxley, Ollie Young, Blood and Tennie Perkins, Cordella Smith, Minnie B. Davis, Masters L. T. Crosthwait, Henry D. Black, J. A. Black, Wm. D. Price, Woody Baker, William Jacob, Andrew Allison, Alonza F. Wade, Wm. Royster and Wm. Smith.

A number of handsome and useful presents were received.

NOTICE.

The Women's Baptist Missionary and Educational Union will hold its regular monthly meeting Friday, February 1, at the Third Avenue Baptist Church at 3 o'clock. All are asked to be present as business of importance is to be transacted, viz.: election of officers and plans for the year's work and most especially plans for the Roger Williams Rally that is to be held on our first quarterly meeting in March. Do come and help to make this great movement a success and a credit to the Union. Several have subscribed and we hope others will do likewise. Please bring your Bibles.

Respectfully,
M. H. FLOWERS, President.
M. P. HADDOX, Secretary.

MRS. MILLS ENTERTAINS IN HONOR OF HER DAUGHTER-IN-LAW.

Mrs. Adella Mills, of 1807 Jefferson street, entertained last Sunday afternoon in honor of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. I. C. Mills.

A sumptuous dinner was spread, and those present feasted to the health of Mrs. Mattie Mills, whose birthday they were celebrating. The